PINE RIVERS SEC

That this Convention of the LNP calls on a future LNP State Government to implement policy that requires and enforces a greater level of accountability by parents or carers of juvenile offenders as part of the justice system, and that appropriate strategies be put in place to ensure support for parents or carers who seek assistance in management of 'at risk' juveniles in their care.

TOWNSVILLE SEC

That this Convention of the LNP, when in government, takes immediate legislative action by introducing a multifaceted bill that deals with the ever-increasing frequency and impacts to the Queensland community of youth crime that it has at its forefront the following tenets:

- (a) consequences for crime;
- (b) genuine compassion for victims of crime; and
- (c) most importantly, the primary concern of any Queensland Government is to be community safety; with the following effects of such legislation being as follows:
 - (i) breach of bail remains an offence;
 - (ii) removal of the sentencing clause of 'detention as a last resort';
 - (iii) mandatory detention on 3rd conviction;
 - (iv) recognition of prior offending in court (i.e. previous convictions under YJA are admissible for sentencing consideration);
 - (v) monitoring of offenders 24/7 when on bail;
 - (vi) resource and legislate for 'Justice Re-Investment Program';
 - (vii) establish a Community Payback Farm program for the rehabilitation of young offenders post detention;
 - (viii) not include Youth Curfews; and
 - (ix) overhaul and reorganise the Department of Child Safety to a Child Protection Force (CPF) that has as its primary concern the protection of the child first and foremost before all other considerations, with legislation/regulation to enable (amongst other things):
 - (1) 24/7 response;
 - (2) adoption of a rank/hierarchy structure similar to the QPS to ensure proper oversight and accountability;
 - (3) compulsory drug testing of parents/guardians of children under Child Protection Force umbrella;
 - (4) recruit and grow foster parents and extend foster carer payments for children in care until they are 21; and
 - (5) enhance the pathway for adoption with permanency order targets and priority for vulnerable children under 3 years.

TOWNSVILLE SEC

That this Convention of the LNP, when in government, to empowers and backs the Police to strictly enforce the laws (particularly those pertaining to crimes committed by Young Offenders) with a zero-tolerance approach (with police discretion), such that with a fair but firm application of the law and enforcement the police will earn more respect and compliance from these few but energetic and resourceful recidivist youths who have total disregard for community safety and the fear they cause within our community, as without consequences there will be no compliance
